The Mission of the La Conner School District

Prepare all students with knowledge, skills and attitudes to be life-long learners and active members of the local and global community.

In addition to a strong basic education core curriculum, the district is known for innovative and creative programs designed to meet the unique learning needs of each child. The district has a strong commitment to early learning, a challenging academic program and a vigorous co-curriculum, where all students can find success to their full potential. The district leadership team is creative, caring and thoughtful as they work with the staff and community to develop and provide unique programs and services.

The La Conner Community and the Swinomish Tribal Community provide strong support and take great pride in the success of the district's schools, students and employees. The district offers a full range of co-curricular activities, characterized by 60% student participation. High School students participate in the Northwest Career and Technical Academy locations in Mount Vernon and Anacortes, and may attend Skagit Valley College as Running Start Students. La Conner students and staff are benefiting from an innovative project, Science in Swinomish, through a strong partnership with Western Washington University, Woodring College of Education.

SWINOMISH TRIBE PARTNERSHIP/COLLABORATION

The Swinomish Education Department works collaboratively in partnerships with the La Conner school, district, other tribal departments, parents/guardians, and students. These partnerships ensure that native students receive every educational opportunity offered to them.

The comprehensive Swinomish Education Department supports the educational needs of the community in many different areas including the following:

- Toddler and Preschool programs provide a safe and nurturing environment with learning incorporated into play.
- Para-pros Support and Advocacy supports thirteen highly qualified and educated tribal Para-pros, who support and advocate for native students in the La Conner School District.
- The Swinomish Tribe in collaboration with Northwest Indian College employs a GED instructor.
- Swinomish Scholarships are provided to tribal members to help them attain higher level education degrees and certifications.
- An Attendance Officer supports students and families with better attendance at school.

ABOUT THE COMMUNITY

Situated on the delta near the mouth of the Skagit River in Western Washington, La Conner was founded in the early 1860's and is Skagit County's oldest community.

Today, La Conner is a balance of people who work and live here, including the Swinomish Tribal Community, Shelter Bay residents from across the channel, fishermen, farmers, artists, and carpenters - a diverse mix of cultures and educational backgrounds. La Conner is described as a place to relax and browse through interesting shops and art galleries, watch the waterfront or enjoy fine restaurants, inns and bed & breakfasts. The area is famous for its natural beauty and wildlife which affords great opportunities for bird watching. Skagit Valley is wintering grounds for swans, Canadian geese and other waterfowl. The fertile farmlands continue to produce food and seed crops and, of course, the annual Tulip Festival, which is celebrated around the world.

La Conner is on the National Registry of Historic Places. The community values its history and heritage. La Conner is an exciting place to work, learn, live and visit.

CHALLENGES AND OPPORTUNITIES

The Board has identified the following leadership challenges and opportunities for the position:
