Glenwood School District
#401

Dedicated To Excellence In Education

THE DISTRICT

The Glenwood School District #401 serves approximately 58 students PreK-12. The district is committed to providing a high-quality education for its students in a safe, supportive and caring environment. The district is known for its small class sizes, which allows for individualize instruction and the development of strong relationships between students and staff. The Glenwood School District cooperates for athletics with Klickitat for most sports. The Glenwood School District is proud of the academic efforts and accomplishments of its students.

THE COMMUNITY

Glenwood, Washington is a small, rural community located in south central Washington, with a population of approximately 250 citizens. The community is situated at the foot of Mt Adams, in a small valley 35 miles north of White Salmon and 34 miles west of Goldendale. Glenwood is known for its beautiful scenery, hunting, fishing, and hiking. Like many small, rural communities, the school is the focal point of the town and its athletic and music events brings the community together. The town has one church, a café, gas station, small store, several businesses, and an annual rodeo on Father's Day weekend. The Glenwood community is very supportive of its schools, including maintenance and operations levies, attendance at various athletic contests and other school events.
