THE DISTRICT & COMMUNITY

The Naselle-Grays River Valley School District is located 30 miles east of the Pacific Ocean in SW Washington. The district's 300 students (elementary, middle and high school) all attend school at one location. Special services are also provided through a cooperative program with Educational Service District 112.

The basis for the economic stability of the district is logging, fishing and farming. Local residents value the uncrowded quality of life found in the area and have regularly demonstrated their commitment to excellent education for students through continual support of school district levies since 1965. Naselle is of interest to anyone who enjoys a quiet lifestyle, hunting, fishing, camping and hiking. Astoria and Long Beach are located 20 minutes away and provide both commercial and recreational needs.
